The 2022 edition of the La Plata County Historical Society's annual publication History La Plata will be a very special one indeed. In celebration of the Society's 50th Anniversary, this edition will explore our area's history through 50 artifacts from the collections of the Animas Museum. From the Basketmaker communities to recent events, each item tells a compelling story.

History La Plata will be inserted in The Durango Herald on June 11. The publication will also be available digitally through The Durango Herald website, and the Animas Museum's website.

Your sponsorship supports the Animas Museum/ La Plata County Historical Society's efforts to keep La Plata County history and culture alive for present and future generations.
